Identity Statement

We are a loving family of God, following Christ by practicing our legacy of worship, education, and mission to neighbors.

CALL TO RECONCILIATION

We know nothing can separate us from God's love in Christ, so we are free to confess our need of grace.

PRAYER OF RECONCILIATION (UNISON)

God, we get caught up in the busyness of life, and we forget to notice: your presence, the wonders of your Creation, your blessings in our lives. God, we become focused on memories of the past, and we get distracted from your presence, from the wonders of Creation, and your blessings in our lives. God, we find ourselves worried about the future, and we get distracted from your presence, from the wonders of Creation, and your blessings in our lives.

SILENT REFLECTION

Forgive us, God. Help us to notice your presence. Help us to realize your goodness. Help us to remember how you guide us. Help us to trust you with our futures.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Hear and receive this affirmation from God's words spoken by the prophet Haggai: "Take courage, all you people of the land for I am with you. According to the promise that I made when you came out of Egypt, my spirit abides with you. Do not fear."

CELEBRATION OF EUCHARIST

INVITATION

My friends, every family sits around a table to share news from the day, concerns about life, and stories they have heard. I invite you now to gather around this table with the great family of creation to share the day, and listen to God's story. It's a special table because it is big enough for all.

It's a special table because it is made from the stuff of the earth: wood and ore, grain and grape, all gifts from God. It's a special table because Jesus is here.

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We give thanks, O Great "I am," who was and is and is to be. We glory in the warmth of the sun and the blessing of rain. We receive the gifts of the earth and the gifts by our participation in the web of all life and live our thanks. We remember how holiness appeared in a burning bush as God of the ancestors and God of the future. We remember how a suffering people were taken from a tight place and set in a broad place and how people continue to be freed from spiritual homelessness down through the ages. We remember the community led by Jesus of Nazareth through prayer, at the table, and through healing and teaching. We remember Jesus' death that re-orders the ways of peace. We remember Jesus' resurrection in the prayers and actions of people passed ear to ear and heart to heart in unending witness toward Shalom. With all the saints and prophets everywhere, who press in to help us stand firm in our witness, we glorify you:

Holy, holy, holy God of love and majesty, the whole universe speaks of your glory, O God. Blessed is the One who comes in the name of our God! Hosanna in the highest!

We recall the supper of Jesus and his companions before his arrest. During the meal, Jesus took bread and blessed and broke it and said: Take, eat: This is my body. Jesus took a cup, gave thanks and passed it to each, saying: Take, drink: This is the cup of the new covenant.

By the power of your Holy Spirit, weave us into a body of testimony to the life you give. With all those who have gone before us and all those yet to come, shape us into a parable of your great heavenly banquet even as we pray as Jesus taught us, Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

BREAKING BREAD, POURING THE CUP

COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Spirit of life, love, grace – God, you have ushered us in, fed us, blessed us and renewed us. Guide us now as we go forth that our lives may bear witness to your gracious, miraculous, and everlasting love. Amen.

CALL FOR THE OFFERING

Whatever your task, do it wholeheartedly as to God: in teaching, give all you have; in speaking, stir to the depths; in giving, share liberally; in helping, do so cheerfully. Contribute to the needs of God's people and practice hospitality.
