CALL TO RECONCILIATION

Liturgist

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you. We now confess our need of grace.

PRAYER OF RECONCILIATION (UNISON)

Inviting God, in the midst of our business-as-usual, you come close; you draw us in and invite us to go deep. You assure us that, in the deep places, we will find new life in abundance. You ask us to trust and to take risks – to cast ourselves fully into the depths of community where we will find our true selves and be empowered to serve. We hear your invitation but we do not always respond in faith. Because of fear, habit, and closed hearts, we hold back and do not follow your lead. When we recognize how we have fallen short, we can be tempted to run away. What you offer is what we need, yet we often reject your love with negative self-talk and resistance.

OFFERTORY: Johannes Brahms: Soul, Adorn Yourself with Gladness

*DOXOLOGY (tune is Old Hundredth) *HYMN #592

PRAYER OF DEDICATION (UNISON)

We thank you, O God, for ourselves, for the energy you give us, empowering each and every one of us to be disciples. Inspire us to follow in the footsteps of our faithful fathers and mothers that we may heed your call and carry out the work that you would have us do using these offerings wisely, in your name and to your glory. Amen

*CLOSING HYMN#420 "God of Grace and God of Glory"

Search for us again, O Love of our hearts, and may we be mindful of who we are in your love so we can become all you have created us to be.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

When we call, God, who is all love, answers and gives us strength for our weariness. Though we fall short, Love draws near to us again and again bringing us out of our fear and resistance and into our calling as reflections of Christ. We have strength for the task and love for the journey – this is our good news today.

CELEBRATION OF EUCHARIST

INVITATION

With weeping we have come needing comfort and assurance that there is reason to praise.

We come to feast on awe and wonder.

There will be gladness for all our sorrow at this table where goodness is poured out over the grain, the wine, and the oil.

Here we shall eat and drink and be merry.

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Holy God, Radiant One, who leads us away from tyrants and authorities grabbing for their own power and might with signs and wonders. Lead us to this feast with all of the gladness of Queen Esther and all of the wonder experienced in Cana. Nourish us with the radiance of possibility. Search with us for signs and wonders that challenge what we have seen and heard because we are not sure that anything has changed. Invite us to this feast again, O God, where we might allow ourselves to stop overthinking and overanalyzing long enough to be present. To be fully here where we can taste goodness and mercy and feel love flow like song. Sing with us, O God, at this feast where life is broken and the cup is shared. Give us a melody for hope and wonder. Overwhelm us with joy. Come, O God, into these ordinary blessings to remind us of the amazing possibility that grace and abundance do not require wisdom or determination but only a readiness to find joy. Come, O Lord, feed us with your signs and wonders even as we pray as Jesus taught us, Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

BREAKING BREAD, POURING THE CUP

COMMUNION OF GOD'S PEOPLE

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Gracious God, may the power of this sacrament take hold of our lives and inspire us to live boldly, that all things now and in time to come will be conformed to your will. Amen.

CALL FOR THE OFFERING

As forgiven and reconciled people, we offer ourselves and the fruit of our labor to God.
