PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

Matt McGivney, Liturgist

One: In the shadow of resurrection,

All: we will live out our faith.

One: In the crumbs of broken bread,

All: we will proclaim Christ is risen.

One: In the wine of the supper,

All: we will trust the promise of grace.

One: In the community at the empty tomb,

All: we will believe what the world does not.

One: In the gravestone now rolled away,

All: we will break out in the joy of resurrection.

*HYMN #121 "That Easter Day with Joy Was Bright"

CALL TO RECONCILIATION

Liturgist

We know nothing can separate us from God's love in Christ, so we are free to confess our need of grace.

LORD'S PRAYER (UNISON)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL FOR THE OFFERING

Freely you have received, freely give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, but with joy and gratitude.

PRAYER OF RECONCILIATION (UNISON)

When we are quick to judge the doubts of others, and are not welcoming of their questions. When we are timid to speak out against injustice. When we wait for proof instead of claiming your peace. When we shut ourselves off from the world, and hide behind walls of fear.

SILENT REFLECTION

Forgive us and strengthen us, O God.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

The God of resurrection is our cornerstone, the foundation of our strength and hope. May we rise and be the people of God. May we rise and be a living testimony of the way of Christ. May we rise and join in the Spirit's song of living.
