PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

Victor Jenkins, Liturgist

One: Come, from every corner of the earth,

All: from every time and place,

One: from south and north,

All: from east and west,

One: gather...

All: gather...

One: For the spirit of God is being poured out upon us

All: even now, in this place,

One: upon the young and the old,

All: the women and the men, slaves and free,

One: upon each of us here.

All: Come, we worship God

*HYMN #319 "Spirit"

CALL TO RECONCILIATION

Liturgist

The proof of God's amazing love is this: while we were still sinners Christ died for us. In humility and faith, we confess our need of God's grace.

BREAKING THE BREAD, POURING THE CUP

COMMUNION OF GOD'S PEOPLE

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

We are grateful, loving God, that through communion you knit us together into one body-the body of Christ. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, help us use them to build up one another in love, empowering us to go to our neighbors, serving them as Christ's hands and feet in the world. Amen.

CALL FOR THE OFFERING

God calls upon us to love one another as God loves us. Even as God has abundantly blessed us with good things, let us bless others through gifts that show we care.

OFFERTORY

PRAYER OF DEDICATION (UNISON)

O Lord, Yours is the breath that fills balloons and the noise as they burst. The tree crammed into a seed and the house it will one day become. The voice that sings a song of freedom and repeats until the whole world joins the chorus. The child who has one question to ask: "Why?" and asks it again and again and again. The book full of words waiting to fill an imagination with dreams and alternative worlds. The church restless for new shoes to take her off exploring. To the possibility, persistence, growth, imagination, and adventure of the Spirit, we dedicate ourselves O God. The stuff that makes things happen is the energy of God – the Spirit, moving across the church and we will be part of it. Amen.

Identity Statement

We are a loving family of God, following Christ by practicing our legacy of worship, education, and mission to neighbors.

PRAYER OF RECONCILIATION (UNISON)

Loving God, your Spirit is all around us, refreshing us, giving energy and hope. And yet, too often, we do not see it because we are caught up in our day-to-day affairs. Hear us as we come to you in a moment of confession. Hear the honesty of our hearts as we tell you that we are sorry for the times we ignore you.

SILENT REFLECTION

Come, fill us with your Spirit of newness. Challenge and equip us to live our lives with you at the center.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

The Spirit hovers like a dove of peace over our lives, waiting to give us new gifts each day. God never refuses to gather us into the harmony of love. We are forgiven. Life is restored and renewed.

CELEBRATION OF EUCHARIST

INVITATION

Today we celebrate the pouring out of the Holy Spirit upon all people for a thriving life. Come now to the feast of life that takes all our past and redeems it with life. Come to the table for the host is waiting with the bread of life and the cup of salvation.

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Jesus – companion and Savior – unfolder of alleluias, bread-breaker life-giver grave-dancer wine-sharer stone-roller gardener, returned. Here is our thanksgiving gathering with all those who have ever gathered round this table meeting your promise in this story that pulls death from the world and redeems it with life. This bread will break open your wondrous story. As we share it, we give thanks for what has been done for us. This wine will spill your promise into the world. As we share it we give thanks for what you have done for us. Great God of resurrection bringing life from death, light from shadows, adventures from question, authenticity from lies we sing with all the angels:

Holy, holy, holy God of new and transforming life heaven and earth are full of your glory hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in your name, O God: Hosanna in the highest.

May our living be our thanksgiving, retelling the story in every moment of the night Jesus took bread and shared it took wine and offered it saying, "eat, drink, all of you." In our thanksgiving may we live as the Body of Christ within the new covenant sealed for all for the forgiveness of sins. We remember Jesus the Christ always, leading us to pray as Jesus taught us, Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
